

BOBBIE DORR

ALL ABOUT.....

I am a Watercolor Artist. My motivation is "Life Itself " and I don't take much for granted, such as the beauty of nature. I strive to master the art of versatility by searching for the creative side of my subject, seeing things through my eyes and expressing my feelings and a thoughts through my paintings. Most of all, I constantly grow as an artist by having the strong will and discipline to meet the challenge of painting something I've never done before..
